

Matthew 3:1-3; Mark 1:2-4; Luke 3:1-6 NKJV

Now in the fifteenth year of the reign of Tiberius Caesar, Pontius Pilate being governor of Judea,
Herod being tetrarch of Galilee,
his brother Philip tetrarch of Iturea and the region of Trachonitis, and Lysanias tetrarch of Abilene,
while Annas and Caiaphas were high priests, the word of God came to John, the son of Zacharias in the wilderness.

In those days John the Baptist came into the wilderness of Judea and went into all the region around the Jordan preaching a baptism of repentance for the remission of sins, and saying, “Repent, for the kingdom of heaven is at hand!”

For this is he who was spoken of by the prophet Isaiah, saying:

“Behold, I send My messenger before Your face,
Who will prepare Your way before You.

“The voice of one crying in the wilderness:
‘Prepare the way of the Lord;
Make His paths straight.

“Every valley shall be filled
And every mountain and hill brought low;
The crooked places shall be made straight
And the rough ways smooth;
And all flesh shall see the salvation of God.”
